Honorable Brian M. Cogan,

I address you in the most attentive manner. Sorry to bother you again with the request that I have asked you before with regards to my wife, Emma Coronel. I ask that you please authorize her to visit me and to bring my daughters to visit me, since my daughters can only visit me when they are on school break, since they are studying in Mexico.

My wife is in California and she can visit me often, since my other close family members such as my sisters cannot visit me because they do not have a visa to travel to the United States. The only person in my family who can visit me is my wife, of course, if you authorize her to do so.

I also bother you to continue giving me the two 15-minute calls a month that you authorized me (one call every 15 days), since in May of 2023, the facility stopped giving me calls with my daughters. And I haven't had calls with them for seven months. I have asked when they are going to give me a call with my daughters and the staff here told me that the FBI agent who monitors the calls does not answer. That's all they've told me. I ask you to please continue giving me the two calls that you authorized me per month. I don't understand why the prosecutor who is in charge of the SAMs Rules stopped authorizing calls with my daughters. This was after I filed my 2255 pro se motion with the court.

She was surely upset because in the pro se motion, I exposed the inefficiency of the lawyers who did not fight the anomalies of the prosecutors throughout the process. And in response, they have decided to punish me by not letting me talk to my daughters. To this day they have not told me if they will no longer give me calls with my girls. That's why I'm bothering you, since you authorized those two calls a month. That is why I ask for your intervention, since it is unprecedented discrimination against me.

I thank you in advance,

Joaquin Guzman Loera
